

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND WOULD YOU LIKE TO SPEND SIX EVENTFUL MONTHS IN TANZANIA?

THE DANISH EMBASSY IN TANZANIA IS LOOKING FOR THREE INTERNS FROM AUGUST 2019

The Danish Embassy in Dar es Salaam is responsible for implementing the Tanzania-Denmark Country Programme, which includes support to the health sector, good governance, and private sector development as well as sector budget support to the Ministry of Finance and Planning. The Embassy is also engaged in Trade Council activities. For more information about our work, cf. <http://tanzania.um.dk/>

In the 2019 fall semester, the embassy will be taking on board three interns within the areas of: 1) good governance and communication, 2) health sector, and 3) macroeconomic analysis and Trade Council. The internship will give you an opportunity to apply your knowledge and skills and further develop your competencies. You will be living in Dar es Salaam with its vibrant social life and ample opportunities to experience African culture first hand.

AN INTERNSHIP WITH THE MACROECONOMIC ANALYSIS & TRADE COUNCIL TEAM

If you are interested in international development cooperation and Danish companies engagement in Africa and have an interest in applied macroeconomics as well as public finance. Then an internship as a part of the Macroeconomic & Trade Council team could be a great opportunity for you.

As an intern, you will be part of the daily work at the Embassy and the Macroeconomic & Trade Council team in particular. The Macroeconomic team works closely with the Ministry of Finance and Planning as well as other governmental institutions in order to support and strengthen the local administration, whereas the Trade Council advises Danish companies on doing business in Tanzania. The tasks of the intern are various but will include:

- Monitoring, analysing and reporting on the economic situation in Tanzania
- Contributing to and preparing documents on Danish development cooperation
- Participating in meetings and dialogue with partners and stakeholders
- Assisting Danish companies in Tanzania through our Trade Council activities

We are looking for a candidate with the following qualifications:

- Enrollment at a University studying economics or similar field
- Good analytical skills
- Interest in and preferable experience with international development issues
- Strong language skills in both English and Danish
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work in a team is essential

For further information, please contact our current Macroeconomic & Trade Council intern Signe Klysnér, sigkly@um.dk, or counsellor Mia Kjems Drægert, miadra@um.dk.

TERMS OF INTERNSHIP

Danish citizens must be enrolled at a Danish or foreign institution of higher education. Foreign citizens must have lived in Denmark for a period of 3-4 years, must be enrolled at a Danish institution of higher education and must live in Denmark at the time of the deadline of the application.

The internships will last from the 1st of August 2019 and until the 31st of January 2020. The three interns will live together. Depending on your individual study arrangements in Denmark, you may be eligible to receive the Danish State Education Grant (SU) during the internship. The internship is unpaid but the Embassy will reimburse specified expenses related to the internship (e.g. airfare, vaccinations and insurance) and according to receipts submitted, within a total monthly ceiling of DKK 3,800. If you do not receive SU during the internship, the monthly supplement of DKK 3,800 can be paid without further documentation.
